Giving God Our Best

After attending public schools as a child I remember the dramatic change when I started as a freshman in Catholic high school - a new city, new classmates, and challenging new standards. On top of that I had to transition from wearing t-shirts and sneakers to dress shirts, slacks, and neckties everyday! While putting on a tie each morning was sort of a pain and we grumbled often, I learned that the way I dressed affected the way I approached my daily goals and how I engaged with others. I felt and behaved differently. Our outward appearance has an impact on our inward disposition.

It wasn't that long ago when wool suits for men and dresses and hats for women were the norm at Mass (and that was without air conditioning!). While I don't propose the return of that standard, I think the special care people took with their Mass attire reflected their reverence for the miracle of the Eucharist. The way we dress and present ourselves at Mass affects on our own soul and the souls of others – it points to the importance of our beliefs. I imagine it also affects our Heavenly Father who delights when His cherished children seek to offer Him their best.

With the warmer weather here for the next few months, the tendency to dress casually and immodestly for Sunday Mass increases exponentially. There is no dress code for attending Mass and I don't judge people based on what they wear. Yet we should still strive to dress appropriately and modestly for the sacred space we enter and the solemn mysteries we celebrate. To help us honor God by how we dress at Mass, we could ask ourselves:

Does the way I present myself look like I am going somewhere special and important?

Does God deserve the same respect that I offer to others by the way I would dress for a special dinner, my job, or even a golf outing?

Is my attire modest? Might it draw the attention of other worshippers away from the Lord and towards me?

Preparing ourselves both inwardly and outwardly for Mass often demands a little effort, time, and sacrifice. But when we remember what God has done for us and continues to do for us, I hope we can believe that He is worth it. I know that you are worth it to Him!

In Christ,
Father David

Parish Finance Council News

After many years of generous service, Tom Nardone has concluded his tenure as chair of the Finance Council. Tom is a faith-filled and humble servant whose leadership has helped to grow and sustain the financial health of our parish. Thankfully, Tom will remain on the council as a regular member.

We are grateful to Michael Richards, another longtime council member, for agreeing to serve a three-year term as the next chair. We also welcome Craig Schuh who has joined the council for a three-year term.

The Finance Council meets regularly throughout the year to support the pastor with recommendations on budgeting, investments, and capital projects and renovations. We are very grateful to the members for their dedication and service!

Annual Diaper Drive

With June upon us it is time for the annual St. Vincent de Paul diaper drive. It is sad to think of poor little toddlers who remain in wet or soiled diapers because their parents cannot afford to buy the amount of diapers so desperately needed.

For a number of years, we have relied on your kindness to help these families provide relief for their young children. This year rather than asking you to stand in line to purchase diapers or wipes, members of your SVdP team are happy to do the shopping for you since we have specific requests for sizes. The diapers will be donated to the Corpus Christi Food Pantry and the Nashua Soup Kitchen.

If you choose to make a donation, you can place cash or checks in the SVdP kiosks at the front and side doors of the church. We ask that you make any checks payable to St. Christopher Parish and just put Diaper Drive in the memo line.

God bless you for your continuing generosity to this worthwhile ministry.

Corpus Christi Summer Fan Collection

The Corpus Christi Food Pantry and Assistance serves many clients in need of fans during the summer season. Most of our clients live downtown in crowded multi-family buildings with no air-conditioning and often not even a fan. If you can donate a new or gently used fan, please bring it to Corpus Christi, 3 Crown St., Mon/Wed 9-12 or Tue/Thurs 1-4. Please contact Susan Dignan at 603-598-1641 if you are interested in donating funding that will help us provide fans this summer. We will shop and share the fans to those who need them most! We appreciate your support and any help you can provide. God Bless!

Family Connection to this Week's Gospel

Gospel Reading: John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Pentecost is sometimes called the birthday of the Church. The Gospel for Pentecost reminds us that the Church begins with the command to forgive. Within the family, the domestic Church, we learn how to forgive and we learn to accept forgiveness. It is the gift of the Holy Spirit that enables us to do both. Today is a fitting time to share a family celebration of reconciliation.

As you gather together as a family, sit quietly for a few minutes, inviting all to reflect upon their need to forgive and to receive forgiveness. If there is a situation or issue within the family that needs attention, spend some time reflecting upon the concern and how your family might address it. Read together today's Gospel, John 20:19-23. Talk together about how Jesus gave us the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us in the work of forgiveness and to bring us peace. Pray together today's psalm, or the Prayer to the Holy Spirit, asking that the Holy Spirit help your family. Share with one another the sign of peace.

St. Joachima

(1783-1854)

Born into an aristocratic family in Barcelona, Spain, Joachima was 12 when she expressed a desire to become a Carmelite nun. But her life took an altogether different turn at 16 with her marriage to a young lawyer, Theodore de Mas. Both deeply devout, they became secular Franciscans. During their 17 years of married life they raised eight children.

The normalcy of their family life was interrupted when Napoleon invaded Spain. Joachima had to flee with the children; Theodore remained behind and died. Though Joachima re-experienced a desire to enter a religious community, she attended to her duties as a mother. At the same time, the young widow led a life of austerity and chose to wear the habit of the Third Order of St. Francis as her ordinary dress. She spent much time in prayer and visiting the sick.

Four years later, with some of her children now married and younger ones under their care, Joachima confessed her desire to a priest to join a religious order. With his encouragement, she established the Carmelite Sisters of Charity. In the midst of the fratricidal wars occurring at the time, Joachima was briefly imprisoned and later exiled to France for several years.

Sickness ultimately compelled her to resign as superior of her order. Over the next four years she slowly succumbed to paralysis, which caused her to die by inches. At her death in 1854 at the age of 71, Joachima was known and admired for her high degree of prayer, deep trust in God, and selfless charity. Joachima was beatified by Pope Pius XII in 1940, and canonized by Pope John XXIII in 1959. Her liturgical feast is celebrated on August 28.

Reflection

Joachima understands loss. She lost the home where her children grew up, her husband, and finally her health. As the power to move and care for her own needs slowly ebbed away, this woman who had all her life cared for others became wholly dependent; she required help with life's simplest tasks. When our own lives go spinning out of control, when illness and bereavement and financial hardship strike, all we can do is cling to the belief that sustained Joachima: God watches over us always.

Prayer to Saint Michael

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding, and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service. Amen.

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your Divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.
