Our Parish Prayer

Heavenly Father, we pray for all of the people and programs of St. Christopher Parish. Unite us as a community of believers and grant us the wisdom, grace, and strength to do your will. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. AMEN.

Our Mission

We are a Roman Catholic parish whose members live and proclaim the saving message of Jesus Christ.

The Sanctuary Lamp burns this week for the people of the parish.

Altar Bread and Wine:

The Altar Bread, which will become the Body of Our Lord Jesus Christ at all Masses during November will be offered in memory of Pete Cadwell by his wife Jane Cadwell. It will be offered in December for Peter Cadwell by his mother, Jane Cadwell

Arrangements can be made to donate the monthly Altar bread and wine in honor of a loved one by contacting the rectory at 882-0632 during business hours. Mass intentions can also be scheduled by calling the rectory.

Votive candle suggested offertory is $3.00 to cover the cost of the 3-day candle.

Free Books in the Church Hall!

Please take a look through the bookshelves in the church hall and take ANY books that you or anybody you know might like. They are mostly children's books but there are also several Catholic books as well.

In December we plan to donate the books that remain to a local thrift store. Please contact the office if you would be willing to help transport the boxes.

Eucharistic Adoration

The adoration of the Blessed Sacrament offers us the opportunity to break through our daily routine and pause a while in the presence of Our Lord. Every first Friday, from September through June, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed on the altar from 1:00 to 3:00 PM. You are invited to take some time for peace and quiet to find strength to face daily challenges and to thank the Lord for his many blessings.

Thanksgiving Basket Thank You from St. Vincent dePaul Society

Thank you to all those who helped to make Thanksgiving dinner more enjoyable for those in need by either taking an envelope to feed a needy family or making a monetary contribution. May God bless you !!

First Saturdays for Reparation

Our Lady requested Five consecutive First Saturdays of reparation to include confession, Holy Communion, five decades of the Rosary and fifteen minutes of meditation on the mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of atoning for the five ways in which people offend the Immaculate Heart of Mary:

- 1) attacks upon Mary's Immaculate Conception
- 2) attacks against her Perpetual Virginity
- 3) attacks upon her Divine Maternity and the refusal to accept her as the Mother of all mankind
- 4) for those who try to publicly implant in children's hearts indifference, contempt and even hatred of this Immaculate Mother
- 5) for those who insult her directly in her sacred images

2022 Christmas Giving Tree

Starting the weekend of November 26th & 27th, our annual Giving Tree will be full of ornaments and sitting in the alcove at the front of the church awaiting your visit. This year these special ornaments were crafted by the St. Christopher Academy Student Council. We appreciate the time and care put into each ornament and the beautiful array of pictures and color they add to the tree.

This Christmas, your gifts will be presented to St. Gianna's Place in Hudson which provides shelter, job and life skills training, and emotional support to homeless pregnant women and their babies. St. Gianna's has asked that your donations be in the form of gift cards, which allow their clients to purchase items according to their needs. There are several different places from which to purchase the gift cards and the donation amounts are $15 thru $30.

Kindly deposit your gift cards into one of the Offertory Boxes inside the church. You may attach the gift card to the ornament or simply drop the gift card into an Offertory Box. This simplifies both your donation and the distribution of the cards to the clients of St. Gianna's Place.

Please have all gift cards returned to the church by December 18th as the Gift Cards will be delivered to St. Gianna's on December 19th or 20th. Thank you for your continuing generosity!

DecemberSong

Join the Saint Anselm College Choir as they provide beautiful and moving choral music within the context of an esteemed Anselmian Christmas tradition: DECEMBERSONG on Saturday, December 3 at 7:30 PM in the Saint Anselm Abbey Church. The evening is interwoven with scripture passages and music creating a beautifully moving and memorable evening. Come, join the Saint Anselm College community as we embark on another holiday journey!

Corpus Christi Corner

November is a busy month at the Pantry. We are gearing up to make Thanksgiving food baskets for our clients. This month's food request includes some of the traditional turkey day food items that we still need to fill the baskets. Thank you for your continued support.

During the month of October, 492.4 pounds of food was collected for the Pantry, with a value of $738.59. Suggested food items for the month of November are: gravy mix packets, cranberry sauce, pie crust mix, fruit pie filling, canned corn, canned carrots, tomato soup, chicken noodle soup, canned stew and deodorant. There are baskets located at each of the church entrances for your donations. Thank you and Happy Thanksgiving.

We're Here for YOU at St. Christopher Parish!

Consecration of the New Altar

Sunday, December 11
10:00 AM Mass

We are happy to announce that our new altar will be installed very soon and Bishop Libasci will consecrate it during the 10:00 AM mass on December 11! Consecrating the altar commemorates the table is set aside solely for the Eucharistic banquet, dedicated to God. We are blessed to be adding this beautiful altar, and the matching ambo, to our sacred space.

Online Bereavement Support Group: Catholic Charities NH

Are you struggling with the loss of a spouse or loved one? Do you feel alone during this difficult time? Catholic Charities NH is here to help with an online support group, "Bereavement – Experiencing Loss, Being Lost and Finding Your Way Again." The six-session program will be held via Zoom on Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m. starting January 11, 2023, and run through February 15. Participants will learn about the dynamics of grief, explore different coping strategies and have an opportunity to connect with others in similar situations. To register, visit www.cc-nh.org/bereavement or call MaryAnn at 603-357-3093. There is no cost to attend.

Project Rachel Ministry

If you or someone you know is suffering after abortion, confidential, non-judgmental help is available from Project Rachel Ministry. Call or email - Phone: 603-663-0192; email: ProjectRachel@rcbm.org - for Project Rachel in New Hampshire. Spanish speakers may visit EsperanzaPosAborto.org.

For Vocations

"They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks...." If you think that God is calling you to serve the Lord of the harvest as a priest, deacon, sister or brother, contact the Vocation Office at mmason@rcbm.org.

St. Christopher Online Giving

Winter weather means ice and snow may make it difficult for some people to get to church. Unfortunately, parish bills keep growing during the winter, including increased heating costs and snow removal expenses. You can make sure your parish support doesn't stop just when we need it the most. Check out our simple, safe and secure online giving program at www.StChrisParishNH.org. We are most grateful to all those who make every effort to give consistently whether electronically or through the weekly offering basket. It really helps us plan and meet our budget!

Prayer Shawls

Our prayer shawl ministry, Creating for our Community, gathers once a month to knit, crochet, and pray as they create beautiful prayer shawls. If you know of someone who could benefit from the gift of a Prayer Shawl, whether they are having difficult time, or simply need the comfort of Prayer wrapped around their shoulders, please contact the rectory at 882-0632.

Outreach Ministry

If you are homebound and cannot attend Mass and would like to receive communion, please call the Rectory 882-0632.

Home Visitation Ministry

The Home Visitation ministry offers in-home visits for Christian fellowship, conversation, and prayer for parishioners who are unable to attend parish Masses and gatherings due to age or infirmity. We offer a comfortable way to experience Jesus' caring presence.

Please note that this ministry does not provide services such as errands, rides, and housework.

Contact Janet Murphy at 603-204-8382 to arrange a visit.

Blessed Charles de Foucauld (September 15, 1858 – December 1, 1916)

Born into an aristocratic family in Strasbourg, France, Charles was orphaned at the age of 6, raised by his devout grandfather, rejected the Catholic faith as a teenager, and joined the French army. Charles went to Algeria with his regiment.

Charles was dismissed from the army when he declined to give up his mistress. However, he later reenlisted in the army. Refused permission to make a scientific exploration of nearby Morocco, he resigned from the service. With the help of a Jewish rabbi, Charles disguised himself as a Jew and in 1883, began a one-year exploration that he recorded in a book that was well received.

Inspired by the Jews and Muslims whom he met, Charles resumed the practice of his Catholic faith when he returned to France in 1886. He joined a Trappist monastery in Ardeche, France, and later transferred to one in Akbes, Syria. Leaving the monastery in 1897, Charles worked as gardener and sacristan for the Poor Clare nuns in Nazareth and later in Jerusalem. In 1901, he returned to France and was ordained a priest.

Later that year Charles journeyed to Beni-Abbes, Morocco, intending to found a monastic religious community in North Africa that offered hospitality to Christians, Muslims, Jews, or people with no religion. He lived a peaceful, hidden life but attracted no companions.

A former army comrade invited him to live among the Tuareg people in Algeria. Charles learned their language enough to write a Tuareg-French and French-Tuareg dictionary, and to translate the Gospels into Tuareg. In 1905, he came to Tamanrasset, where he lived the rest of his life. A two-volume collection of Charles' Tuareg poetry was published after his death.

In early 1909, he visited France and established an association of laypeople who pledged to live by the Gospels. His return to Tamanrasset was welcomed by the Tuareg. In 1915, Charles wrote to Louis Massignon: "The love of God, the love for one's neighbor...All religion is found there...How to get to that point? Not in a day since it is perfection itself: it is the goal we must always aim for, which we must unceasingly try to reach and that we will only attain in heaven."

The outbreak of World War I led to attacks on the French in Algeria. Seized in a raid by another tribe, Charles and two French soldiers coming to visit him were shot to death on December 1, 1916.

Five religious congregations, associations, and spiritual institutes—Little Brothers of Jesus, Little Sisters of the Sacred Heart, Little Sisters of Jesus, Little Brothers of the Gospel, and Little Sisters of the Gospel—draw inspiration from the peaceful, largely hidden, yet hospitable life that characterized Charles. He was beatified on November 13, 2005.

PREPARE

Have you ever been caught off guard? The first Sundays of Advent often have an ominous quality to them. Jesus reminds his listeners today about how many people who lived at the same time as Noah were caught off guard when the deluge came. Of course, we can end up being complete nervous wrecks if we spend each day in paranoia, looking for signs of impending doom. A healthy readiness is called for, one that keeps us alert so we can find signs of God's reign—soon to be made manifest in Jesus—around us. In the coming days of holiday sensate bombardment and hours that fill up with busyness, this readiness can also serve to keep us focused on the coming gift of the Messiah, God's Anointed. Now is the time to take stock, to evaluate life, to make changes where necessary, preparing for God's holy reign to come.

ON EDGE

There are numerous photographs of people who sleep on mountainside ledges, who carelessly dangle their feet into the space of geological chasms, and of course there's the iconic photograph of workers eating their lunch on a beam of the under-construction Chrysler building in New York. Some people seem attracted to these precarious, stomach-churning locations; many of us are not. More of us have had the experience of beginning a new stage in life, with the excitement and occasional stomach-churning newness of a moment that can put us a bit on edge. Advent—its first couple of Sundays in particular—has a similar role in the passage of time that we call the liturgical year. It's unlikely that the First Sunday of Advent makes many stomachs churn, but perhaps more would if we truly took it seriously that we are to make ourselves ready for the coming of the reign of God at any moment.

WALK IN THE LIGHT

When we encounter the daily news, it can seem as though Isaiah's prophecy of swords turned into plowshares is running in reverse, making despair seem wiser than hopefulness. This is where Advent as the brink of God's reign comes into play. Advent can be a time for each of us to de-weaponize, even in the smallest of ways, the world around us. Advent's days offer a chance to look for opportunities to make the world a bit more hopeful for others. As we head through Advent, the elevated focus we have when we are standing at those new moments, those new stages of life, can help us tune out the despair, so we might open our ears and hearts to Jesus. This way, we can turn our backs on gloom, and accept Isaiah's invitation to walk in the light of the Lord: Jesus Christ, the Word-made-Flesh!

TODAY'S READINGS

Isaiah 2:1–5
 Psalm 122:1–2, 3–4, 4–5, 6–7, 8–9
 Romans 13:11–14
 Matthew 24:37–44

Prayer to Saint Michael

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding, and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service. Amen.

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your Divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

In the Words of

Pope Francis

Christ is the unifying centre of all reality. He is the answer to all human questions. He is the fulfilment of every desire for happiness, goodness, love and eternity present in the human heart.
