New Campus Walkway

Our parish would like to express our deep gratitude to Ambrose Rockwell of Boy Scout Troop 15 for installing the beautiful new brick walkway connecting the main parking lot to the barn parking lot!

The walkway is not only a beautiful addition to our campus but it will be especially beneficial in the winter months by providing safe access to the barn lot.

This project was part of Ambrose's journey to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout. He was responsible for planning, budgeting, and executing the entire project. He demonstrated strong organization, leadership, and communication skills throughout the process. Ambrose is a mature and faith-filled young man who clearly exemplifies the values of Scouting and service to the Church.

Be sure to go for a walk along the new pathway soon!

St. Christopher Parish would like to welcome

- Kevin & Olga Boulard
- Cesar & Dania Soler and their children Sadie & Emilia
- Bernard & Bernadette Plante
- Patrick & Samantha Rhodes and their children Sophie & Zoe to their new spiritual home.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

On the weekend of November 19 & 20, we will take up the Catholic Campaign for Human Development and Black and Indian Missions. This campaign supports programs and services for persons with low income, both in NH and around the U.S. Grants support programs that address community problems, increasing educational opportunities, and the creation of jobs. 25% of the CCHD Collection stays within the Church in New Hampshire to support solidarity initiatives with persons of low-income. A portion of this combined collection also supports Black and Indian missions in the U.S. Please be as prayerfully generous as possible.

2022 Christmas Giving Tree

Starting the weekend of November 26th & 27th, our annual Giving Tree will be full of ornaments and sitting in the alcove at the front of the church awaiting your visit. This year these special ornaments were crafted by the St. Christopher Academy Student Council. We appreciate the time and care put into each ornament and the beautiful array of pictures and color they add to the tree.

This Christmas, your gifts will be presented to St. Gianna's Place in Hudson which provides shelter, job and life skills training, and emotional support to homeless pregnant women and their babies. St. Gianna's has asked that your donations be in the form of gift cards, which allow their clients to purchase items according to their needs. There are several different places from which to purchase the gift cards and the donation amounts are $15 thru $30.

Kindly deposit your gift cards into one of the Offertory Boxes inside the church. You may attach the gift card to the ornament or simply drop the gift card into an Offertory Box. This simplifies both your donation and the distribution of the cards to the clients of St. Gianna's Place.

Please have all gift cards returned to the church by December 18th as the Gift Cards will be delivered to St. Gianna's on December 19th or 20th. Thank you for your continuing generosity!

Our Family Faith class is THANKFUL! We had our second in person class on October 16th. We had a great turnout and we continue to grow! Families enjoyed breakfast and fellowship, and completed a fun project while talking about all of their families BLESSINGS! The question posed was "What are we truly THANKFUL for? The students covered Chapter 5- "What is the Church?" in their grade level classes while the parents had a great session as well talking about the same topic, WHAT IS THE CHURCH? with power point and interactive discussion questions.

Saint Agnes of Assisi

(c. 1197 – November 16, 1253)

Born Caterina Offreducia, Agnes was the younger sister of Saint Clare, and her first follower. When Caterina left home two weeks after Clare's departure, their family attempted to bring her back by force. They tried to drag her out of the monastery, but her body suddenly became so heavy that several knights could not budge it. Her uncle Monaldo tried to strike her but was temporarily paralyzed. The knights then left Caterina and Clare in peace. Saint Francis himself gave Clare's sister the name Agnes, because she was gentle like a young lamb.

Agnes matched her sister in devotion to prayer and in willingness to endure the strict penances that characterized the Poor Ladies' lives at San Damiano. In 1221, a group of Benedictine nuns in Monticelli near Florence asked to become Poor Ladies. Saint Clare sent Agnes to become abbess of that monastery. Agnes soon wrote a rather sad letter about how much she missed Clare and the other nuns at San Damiano. After establishing other monasteries of Poor Ladies in northern Italy, Agnes was recalled to San Damiano in 1253, as Clare lay dying.

Three months later Agnes followed Clare in death, and was canonized in 1753.

Saint Gertrude the Great

(January 6, 1256 – November 17, 1302)

Gertrude, a Benedictine nun in Helfta, Saxony, was one of the great mystics of the 13th century. Together with her friend and teacher Saint Mechtild, she practiced a spirituality called "nuptial mysticism," that is, she came to see herself as the bride of Christ. Her spiritual life was a deeply personal union with Jesus and his Sacred Heart, leading her into the very life of the Trinity.

But this was no individualistic piety. Gertrude lived the rhythm of the liturgy, where she found Christ. In the liturgy and in Scripture she found the themes and images to enrich and express her piety. There was no clash between her personal prayer life and the liturgy. The Liturgical Feast of Saint Gertrude the Great is November 16.

THE WORK OF DISCIPLESHIP

It is easy to go through life non-reflectively, living the routines of our days and weeks without giving much thought to the larger questions of meaning, purpose, and calling. We may know we need to change but put it off, thinking we'll love, serve, and care more in the future. We may face trial personally and be weary of trying to live as we know we should. We witness discord, violence, and division and it may feel that it is the end of the world. Today's readings urge us to put laziness, fear, or distraction aside and get about the work of discipleship with the assurance that the Lord will provide what we need as we do so.

THE SUN OF JUSTICE WILL ARISE

It may seem as though Jesus is talking directly to us in today's Gospel. While it is always true that the Gospel speaks across time and space, today's message feels particularly appropriate as we near the end of another year that has been filled with pandemic, political division, international tension, and economic concerns. Christ reigns over all these things, and as Christians, we hold firm in the belief that we will as well. We must take the long view—the truly long view of eternity—as we meet the challenges of our time. The sun of justice will arise. All will be well.

NOT A HAIR ON YOUR HEAD WILL BE DESTROYED. PERSEVERE.

The message of the Gospel is not abstract, nor are we distant hearers of its message. We face choices every day about how we will live, what we will or won't do, how seriously we will take Christ's call to live the truth of the gospel. At times, the choices we face seem inconsequential: will we sit on the sofa night after night, or choose to spend time with family or serve in our parish? Will we get up for Mass on Sunday morning ready to praise God and be part of our faith community, or drag ourselves there, grumbling every step of the way (or not go at all)? Choices such as these are of consequence of course, not only because each decision matters, but the patterns we establish in our lives are rooted in the cumulative weight of the choices we make. We may be called upon to make harder choices and must be prepared to do so. Jesus tells us to persevere. By doing so, we will secure our lives.

TODAY'S READINGS

Malachi 3:19–20a
Psalm 98:5–6, 7–8, 9
2 Thessalonians 3:7–12
Luke 21:5–19

Prayer to Saint Michael

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding, and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service. Amen.

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your Divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

In the Words of
Pope Francis

"Holiness is not a process of struggles and renunciations. It is above all the experience of being loved by God, of freely receiving his love, his mercy."
