Prayer to Christ the King

O Christ Jesus, I acknowledge You King of the Universe. All that has been created has been made for You. Exercise upon me all Your rights. I renew my baptismal promises, renouncing satan and all his works and pomps. I promise to live a good Christian life and to do all in my power to procure triumph of the rights of God and Your Church. Divine Heart of Jesus, I offer You my poor actions in order to obtain that all hearts may acknowledge Your sacred Royalty, and that thus the reign of Your peace may be established throughout the universe. Amen.

(from the Saint Joseph Daily Missal)

A plenary indulgence once a day (No. 272)

Corpus Christi Corner

November is a busy month at the Pantry. We are gearing up to make Thanksgiving food baskets for our clients. This month's food request includes some of the traditional turkey day food items that we still need to fill the baskets. Thank you for your continued support.

During the month of October, 492.4 pounds of food was collected for the Pantry, with a value of $738.59. Suggested food items for the month of November are: gravy mix packets, cranberry sauce, pie crust mix, fruit pie filling, canned corn, canned carrots, tomato soup, chicken noodle soup, canned stew and deodorant. There are baskets located at each of the church entrances for your donations. Thank you and Happy Thanksgiving.

Corpus Christi Office Volunteer

Corpus Christi Food Pantry is in need of volunteers to help in the office. The hours are Monday and Wednesday 8:30 AM until noon and on Tuesday from 10:30 AM until noon. The primary function is to answer the phones. If you are interested, please call Maryellen at 603-882-6372. The rewards are out of this world.

For Vocations

"Jesus, remember me when you come into Your kingdom." Will you make Christ the King and His merciful love remembered as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Contact the Vocation Office at mmason@rcbm.org.

St. Thomas Aquinas Fall Open House Sunday, November 20th

We hope you will join us on Sunday, November 20th at 11:30 AM to learn about St. Thomas Aquinas High School! From presentations from faculty, demonstrations, and information about all things STA, this is a great opportunity to develop an understanding of Saints Pride from the inside out! Bring your questions, your curiosity, and all family members. Please register online at <https://www.stalux.org/admissions/admissions-calendar>.

Thanksgiving Basket Drop-off

All donations for the Thanksgiving Basket Drive by the St. Vincent dePaul Society are due back to the parish on Monday, November 21, between 4:00 and 5:00 PM. Please place all food items in boxes labeled with the family code noted at the bottom of your donation letter. Please pull into the parking lot behind the school, entering from Brookline St. You will be directed to the correct drop-off table and volunteers will remove all boxes from your car. You do not need to exit your car. Thank you!

St. Christopher Parish would like to welcome David & Katherine Kinney and their children Olivia & Noah to their new spiritual home.

2022 Christmas Giving Tree

Starting the weekend of November 26th & 27th, our annual Giving Tree will be full of ornaments and sitting in the alcove at the front of the church awaiting your visit. This year these special ornaments were crafted by the St. Christopher Academy Student Council. We appreciate the time and care put into each ornament and the beautiful array of pictures and color they add to the tree.

This Christmas, your gifts will be presented to St. Gianna's Place in Hudson which provides shelter, job and life skills training, and emotional support to homeless pregnant women and their babies. St. Gianna's has asked that your donations be in the form of gift cards, which allow their clients to purchase items according to their needs. There are several different places from which to purchase the gift cards and the donation amounts are $15 thru $30.

Kindly deposit your gift cards into one of the Offertory Boxes inside the church. You may attach the gift card to the ornament or simply drop the gift card into an Offertory Box. This simplifies both your donation and the distribution of the cards to the clients of St. Gianna's Place.

Please have all gift cards returned to the church by December 18th as the Gift Cards will be delivered to St. Gianna's on December 19th or 20th. Thank you for your continuing generosity!

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

This weekend, November 19 & 20, we take up the Catholic Campaign for Human Development and Black and Indian Missions. This campaign supports programs and services for persons with low income, both in NH and around the U.S. Grants support programs that address community problems, increasing educational opportunities, and the creation of jobs. 25% of the CCHD Collection stays within the Church in New Hampshire to support solidarity initiatives with persons of low-income. A portion of this combined collection also supports Black and Indian missions in the U.S. Please be as prayerfully generous as possible.

The Black and Indian Mission Collection exists to help local African American and Native American Diocesan Communities throughout the United States spread the Good News of Jesus Christ and respond to real and pressing needs on the ground.

Free Books in the Church Hall!

Please take a look through the bookshelves in the church hall and take ANY books that you or anybody you know might like. They are mostly children's books but there are also several Catholic books as well.

In December we plan to donate the books that remain to a local thrift store. Please contact the office if you would be willing to help transport the boxes.

Consecration of the New Altar

Sunday, December 11
10:00 AM Mass

We are happy to announce that our new altar will be installed very soon and Bishop Libasci will consecrate it during the 10:00 AM mass on December 11! Consecrating the altar commemorates the table is set aside solely for the Eucharistic banquet, dedicated to God. We are blessed to be adding this beautiful altar, and the matching ambo, to our sacred space.

We're Here for YOU at St. Christopher Parish!

Online Bereavement Support Group: Catholic Charities NH

Are you struggling with the loss of a spouse or loved one? Do you feel alone during this difficult time? Catholic Charities NH is here to help with an online support group, "Bereavement – Experiencing Loss, Being Lost and Finding Your Way Again." The six-session program will be held via Zoom on Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m. starting January 11, 2023, and run through February 15. Participants will learn about the dynamics of grief, explore different coping strategies and have an opportunity to connect with others in similar situations. To register, visit www.cc-nh.org/bereavement or call MaryAnn at 603-357-3093. There is no cost to attend.

St. Christopher Online Giving

Winter weather means ice and snow may make it difficult for some people to get to church. Unfortunately, parish bills keep growing during the winter, including increased heating costs and snow removal expenses. You can make sure your parish support doesn't stop just when we need it the most. Check out our simple, safe and secure online giving program at www.StChrisParishNH.org. We are most grateful to all those who make every effort to give consistently whether electronically or through the weekly offering basket. It really helps us plan and meet our budget!

Prayer Shawls

Our prayer shawl ministry, Creating for our Community, gathers once a month to knit, crochet, and pray as they create beautiful prayer shawls. If you know of someone who could benefit from the gift of a Prayer Shawl, whether they are having difficult time, or simply need the comfort of Prayer wrapped around their shoulders, please contact the rectory at 882-0632.

Outreach Ministry

If you are homebound and cannot attend Mass and would like to receive communion, please call the Rectory 882-0632.

Home Visitation Ministry

The Home Visitation ministry offers in-home visits for Christian fellowship, conversation, and prayer for parishioners who are unable to attend parish Masses and gatherings due to age or infirmity. We offer a comfortable way to experience Jesus' caring presence.

Please note that this ministry does not provide services such as errands, rides, and housework.

Contact Janet Murphy at 603-204-8382 to arrange a visit.

Saint Rose Philippine Duchesne

(August 29, 1769 – November 18, 1852)

Born in Grenoble, France, of a family that was among the new rich, Rose learned political skills from her father and a love of the poor from her mother. The dominant feature of her temperament was a strong and dauntless will, which became the material—and the battlefield—of her holiness. She entered the Visitation of Mary convent at 19, and remained despite family opposition. As the French Revolution broke, the convent was closed, and she began taking care of the poor and sick, opened a school for homeless children, and risked her life helping priests in the underground.

When the situation cooled, Rose personally rented the former convent, now a shambles, and tried to revive its religious life. The spirit was gone, however, and soon there were only four nuns left. They joined the infant Society of the Sacred Heart, whose young superior, Mother Madeleine Sophie Barat, would be her lifelong friend.

In a short time Rose was a superior and supervisor of the novitiate and a school. But since hearing tales of missionary work in Louisiana as a little girl, her ambition was to go to America and work among the Indians. At 49, she thought this would be her work. With four nuns, she spent 11 weeks at sea en route to New Orleans, and seven weeks more on the Mississippi to St. Louis. She then met one of the many disappointments of her life. The bishop had no place for them to live and work among Native Americans. Instead, he sent her to what she sadly called "the remotest village in the U.S.," St. Charles, Missouri. With characteristic drive and courage, she founded the first free school for girls west of the Mississippi.

Though Rose was as hardy as any of the pioneer women in the wagons rolling west, cold and hunger drove them out—to Florissant, Missouri, where she founded the first Catholic Indian school, adding others in the territory.

"In her first decade in America, Mother Duchesne suffered practically every hardship the frontier had to offer, except the threat of Indian massacre—poor lodging, shortages of food, drinking water, fuel and money, forest fires and blazing chimneys, the vagaries of the Missouri climate, cramped living quarters and the privation of all privacy, and the crude manners of children reared in rough surroundings and with only the slightest training in courtesy" (Louise Callan, R.S.C.J., Philippine Duchesne).

Finally at age 72, retired and in poor health, Rose got her lifelong wish. A mission was founded at Sugar Creek, Kansas, among the Potawatomi and she was taken along. Though she could not learn their language, they soon named her "Woman-Who-Prays-Always." While others taught, she prayed. Rose Duchesne died in 1852, at the age of 83, and was canonized in 1988. Her liturgical feast is celebrated on November 18.

THE THRONE OF THE CROSS

We conclude the liturgical year today with the Solemnity of Christ the King. On the surface, we might wonder what this has to do with our lives. Why does it matter that Christ is King? Do we need a king? If we are honest with ourselves, we must admit that we do need someone to follow, a king who will rule our hearts, minds, and lives with goodness. Left to our own devices, following our own tendencies, we are bound to fall short of God's great call to grow and live in holiness. Christ will shepherd us, not from a position of power or authority, although both are his as well, but rather from the throne of the cross, the throne of humility, compassion, and peace.

JESUS, THE IMAGE OF THE INVISIBLE GOD

Part of the challenge of living as a child of God is not being able to see God, to know what God is like. Believing in God requires faith, the willingness to enter into a mystery that is timeless and yet timely—as true today as it has been throughout the ages. Placing our faith in Jesus does not require us to put rational thought behind. Rather, in Jesus, we see God, the creator of all that is, including our intellect, the ability to understand our experience, and more. Jesus makes God visible, he is the image of the invisible God, the sign of God's determination that we not be separated from God, the one who shows us creation's ultimate purpose. When we wonder what God is like, what God desires, or how God acts, we need only look to Christ, who pours out his life in God's compassionate love.

JESUS, REMEMBER ME

The repentant thief in today's Gospel gives us a lasting image of Christ's undying love and forgiveness. As Jesus is dying on the cross, the thief declares his belief in Jesus, the King. Jesus recognizes his faith and makes his own declaration: "today you will be with me in Paradise." As we come to the end of the liturgical year and prepare to enter into Advent, it is good for us to ask ourselves if we, too, are ready to declare our belief that Jesus is the Christ, the image of the unseen God, the one who was and is and is to come. As we reaffirm our faith, let us place our hearts, minds, and lives in the hands of the King who reigns now and will reign into eternity.

TODAY'S READINGS

2 Samuel 5:1–3
 Psalm 122:1–2, 3–4, 4–5
 Colossians 1:12–20
 Luke 23:35–43

Prayer to Saint Michael

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding, and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service. Amen.

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your Divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

In the Words of Pope Francis

The poor guarantee us an eternal "income". They are already helping us to become rich in love. For the worst kind of poverty to combat is the poverty of our love.
